

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vancouver lawyer & attorney Penny Green, named as finalist in RBC Canadian Women Entrepreneur Awards

Vancouver, BC, October 9, 2012 – Penny Green, Founder and CEO of Vancouver-based Bacchus Law Corporation, has been named by Women of Influence Inc. as a finalist for the 2012 RBC Canadian Women Entrepreneur Awards (CWEA) announced on October 4, 2012.

Green is being recognized in the Excellence in Entrepreneurship category in the western region for her entrepreneurial vision, business success and as a positive role model for young women in the pre-eminent national business awards recognizing the country's leading female entrepreneurs. There are only three finalists for this award.

"I am honoured to have been selected from among 3,500 applicants," she said. "I feel fortunate that every day when I go to work I am pursuing my own business dreams while making a difference."

Bacchus Law provides legal services for companies raising capital. The law firm has effectively taken more than 40 companies public in the US and Canada and has assisted over 100 companies with compliance with corporate and securities rules in Canada and the US. The team at Bacchus has developed an extensive network that allows clients to get everything they need. They offer a high level of personal customer service combined with enthusiasm and talent allowing their clients to achieve their business, legal and financial goals.

Green, with the other finalists, will be honoured at the 20th Annual Awards Gala, hosted by Diane Francis, editor-at-large for the National Post, on November 28, 2012 in Toronto.

The RBC CWEA recognizes women entrepreneurs from across Canada who make impressive contributions to the local, Canadian or global economy. Nominees share a strong entrepreneurial vision and a relentless passion in pursuing their dreams. The award series will recognize business women from three major regions across Canada; east, central and west.

“RBC is proud to honour this group of extraordinary women who have shown passion, discipline and perseverance in their quest for business excellence,” says Andrea Bolger, head, Business Financial Services, RBC. “The number of female entrepreneurs now represents more than half of all small business owners in Canada – it is inspiring to see this growth.”

Media contact:

Anita Webster
(604) 732-7035
(604) 313-6568
anita@anitawebstercommunications.com

About Bacchus Law Corporation:

Bacchus Law Corporation is a corporate and securities boutique with five lawyers, covering expertise in NYSE Amex, TSX, TSX-V, CNSX and OTCQB/QX. Bacchus has worked with companies on various ways of going public in Canada, including three party Plans of Arrangements, Spin Offs as well as traditional reverse mergers often involving a cross-border element and is well versed in the tax, corporate and securities issues involved in these types of transactions. The firm’s experience includes listing in Canada and the US, and it has worked with companies in many industries, including mining, oil and gas, technology and industrial. The staff’s focused expertise in a boutique allows them to provide excellent services efficiently and at reasonable prices. For more information on the firm, please go to www.bacchuscorplaw.com