Vancouver lawyer Penny Green take top honour in PROFIT Magazine ranking;
Bacchus Law CEO is among top 100 female entrepreneurs

Vancouver, BC, October 4, 2012 – Bacchus Law Corporation is pleased to announce that Penny Green, Founder and CEO has been named one of Canada's Top Female Entrepreneurs as part of the 14th annual Top W100 ranking, produced by PROFIT Magazine and Chatelaine.

"It's an honor to be included in the Top 100 list again," says Penny Green who placed 71st. "Bacchus Law Corporation has been fortunate to experience continued growth. As securities lawyers in tough economic times, we focus on providing our clients with the highest level of service and the benefit of our broad experience - in particular helping start-ups meet challenges."

The top three women in the PROFIT Magazine ranking are all from BC.

Kelsey Ramsden of Kelowna's Belvedere Place Development Ltd. is in top spot followed by Shannon Rogers of Global Relay Communications and Amiee Chan of Norsat International Inc.

Bacchus Law provides legal services for companies raising capital and recorded a three-year revenue growth of 43%.

The Vancouver-based law firm has effectively taken over 40 companies public in the US and Canada and has assisted more than 100 companies with compliance with corporate and securities rules in Canada and the US. The team at Bacchus has developed an extensive network that allows clients to get everything they need. Their dedication to offering a high level of personal customer service combined with their enthusiasm and talent allows the team to quickly respond to changes in demands to achieve their clients business, legal and financial goals.

Ranking Canada's Top Female Entrepreneurs on a composite score based on the size, growth rate and profitability of their businesses, the W100 profiles the country's most successful female business owners. Published in the November issue of PROFIT and Chatelaine magazines and online at www.PROFITguide.com and www.Chatelaine.com, the W100 is Canada's largest annual celebration of entrepreneurial achievement by women.

"The women of the W100 offer 100 shining examples of Canadian entrepreneurship," said Ian Portsmouth, Publisher and Editor-in-Chief of PROFIT. "They have achieved their elite status by creating valued products and services, applying deft management skills and exercising the determination required to succeed in today's business environment."
